

OSLER RIGHT; YOUTH SUCCEEDS AGE

Gray Hair Is First Sign of Age, Harmless Remedy Restores to Natural Color.

Osler isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks the plums. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc., and the old man is passed by in the race. One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well-known fact that Sage and Sulphur will darken the hair. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur combines these old-time remedies with other agents, which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize the druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

State Convention Women Workers

Held With Haile Club Members, Six Clubs Being Represented—Election of Officers and Reports—Entertainment at Y. M. C. A. Hall.

Attending the 21st annual reunion of the Connecticut Association of Women Workers, which met here on Thursday with the Haile club, delegates from six girls' clubs in different cities of the state participated in a round of activities which gave them a most favorable impression of the Rose of New England from the several angles at which they were able to view it. Arriving in the latter part of the morning they were met at the train by the Haile club committee, and welcomed with large-hearted hospitality at the club rooms, where they had luncheon before proceeding to the opening of the business session in the early part of the afternoon.

In the Line of Entertainment. When the business was over, they were treated to a car ride in a special trolley over the Yale line, the prettiest route in the city, they had

The committee work began at the train, where the following met the arriving delegates: Mrs. F. L. Farrell, Miss Susan I. Gallup, Miss Mary Kane, Miss Alice Stevenson and Miss Elsie Fillmore. At the club rooms the following reception committee was on duty:

Miss Mary Kane, Miss Lida Calley, Miss Mary B. Sheridan, Miss Jean Jackson, Mrs. William Camp Lannan, Miss Mary Richards, Miss Anna Schwartz, Miss May Rindan, Miss Beatrice Edmondson, Miss Mary Dunbar, Miss Ella Kirby, Miss Bridget Moran, Mrs. Daniel S. Haviland, Mrs. Oscar Lowman, Mrs. Nelson C. Taintor, Miss Louise Howe.

Delegates and Visitors.

Among the seventy delegates and visitors present were the following, representing six out of town clubs: New Britain Working Girls' club; President, Miss Mary E. Pease; treasurer, Miss Annie L. Copley; secretary, Miss Anna Webster; and the Misses Elizabeth Greta Brown, Nellie J. Tarrant, Josephine O'Brien, Florence Winchester, Margaret Bailey, Katherine A. Gunther.

Alpha club, New Haven: Mrs. W. D. Mossan, president, manager, Mrs. L. S. Graves; secretary, Mrs. Marjorie Cragan; counselors, Rauline Curtis, Caroline Hochma; delegates, Miss Julia Birdstrom, Miss Bertha Avery, Miss Mary Sprague.

Violet club, New Haven: President, Miss Emeline Street; Miss Sadie Callahan; counselors, Miss Sadie Callahan and Miss Nellie Calne and Mrs. C. Sullivan.

Naugatuck Working Girls' club: Miss Gertrude Whittemore, counselors, Miss T. M. Tuttle and Miss Harriet Miner; delegates, Miss Cella Ahn, secretary; Miss Martha Clifford, assistant secretary, and Mrs. J. H. Whittemore.

Women's Industrial club, Derby: Miss Elizabeth Beardsley and Miss Mable Brandon, counselors.

Waterbury Institute of Crafts and Industry: President, Miss Anna Ward; superintendent, Miss Ethel Scatchard; assistant director, Miss Hayden.

Miss Smith Unable to Attend.

It was a matter of regret to the workers that Miss K. Maud Smith of Naugatuck, who was elected vice president a year ago, was prevented from attending through illness. She has been acting president during most of the year, since Miss Helen Davison of New Britain, who was elected president, married and moved to another state.

The business part of the reunion began about 2:30 with a meeting of the counselors, who are the club superintendents and leaders. They re-elected the old board, and the nominating committee prepared the list of officers to be presented before the directors for election at a meeting to be held about 6 o'clock.

The regular business meeting of the state association was called to order in the Haile club hall shortly after 3 o'clock, with the secretary, Miss Emeline Street of New Haven, as chairman in the absence of the acting president.

Welcome to Visitors.

The formal welcome from the Haile club was heartily given by Mrs. William C. Lannan, who told the delegates that they would be received with the warmest hospitality and everything would be done for their entertainment.

Miss Mary B. Sheridan, President Haile Club.

With Miss Susan I. Gallup at the piano the Connecticut Association sang, to the tune of Lauriger Horatious, was sung standing, and all joined in the club's song. The roll call was responded to by the delegates rising to be counted when the name of their club was reached. The following were the clubs responding: Waterbury Institute of Crafts and Industry, Inc.; Women's Industrial club, Derby; Violet club and Alpha club, New Haven; Naugatuck Working Girls' club; Haile club and New Britain Working Girls' club. The regular delegates numbered 59, and visitors present made the total attendance close to 75.

A good woman was the most powerful influence on earth, and what makes a man happy is a happy home and a good wife, which was one of the things these girls' clubs were accomplishing, and she urged the girls to take every advantage that the clubs offered to make them noble, good women. Her earnest words evoked enthusiastic applause.

Work of Miss Corcoran.

The response was by Miss Anna Ward, president of the Waterbury Institute of Craft and Industry, who spoke of the great pleasure it gave the clubs to meet here and thanked the Haile club for the enthusiastic reception they had been given. Addressing a word particularly to the Norwich people she told them of the way Miss Julia Corcoran came to be unanimously chosen woman factory inspector, and she said that Norwich,
